Pyramid Computer GmbH trades in items that are products in the sense of chemical law. We obtain the items from European and non-European suppliers. We are therefore subject to the information obligations towards our customers according to Art. 33 of the REACH Regulation if a substance of very high concern (SVHC substance) is contained in a mass concentration above 0.1% in a product supplied by us. The list of SVHC substances is published on the website of the European Chemicals Agency (ECHA) at <https://echa.europa.eu/de/candidate-list-table>. The list currently contains 253 substances (last update 2026-02-04)

In our own interest and against the background of high delivery and product safety, we take this duty to inform very seriously. We comply with the legal requirements according to Art. 33 of the REACH Regulation through the following procedure:

- Our suppliers are obliged to inform us unsolicited and immediately if the products they deliver contain a SVHC substance above 0.1% by mass. If we receive such information from our suppliers, we will immediately pass this information on to you in accordance with Art. 33 of the REACH Regulation.
- We question our suppliers at regular intervals regarding SVHC substances and request proof of conformity.
